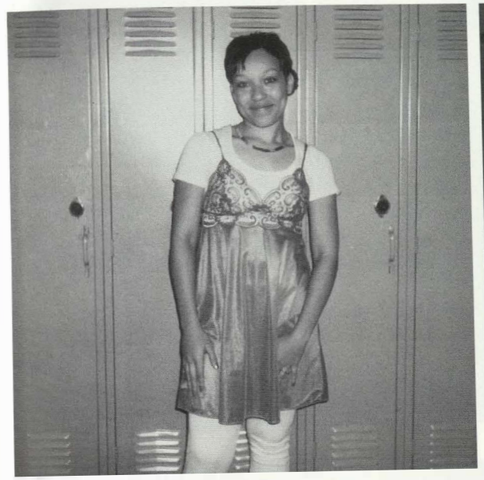
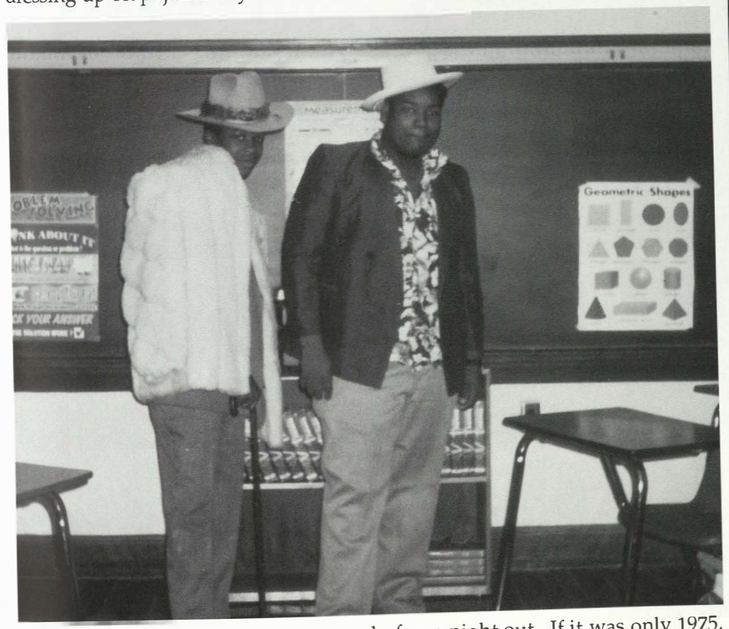
Juniors Just Kickin' it!



Priscilla Ray joined in on the fun of Spirit Week by dressing up on pajama day.

Charice Jackson, Shereece Jackson, Stephanie Mills and Yvonne Cade dress in way back gear during Spirit Week to show that the class of '99 has outstanding Bulldog spirit.



Otis Harris and Aubrey Lewis are ready for a night out. If it was only 1975, they would be quite hip and groovy.

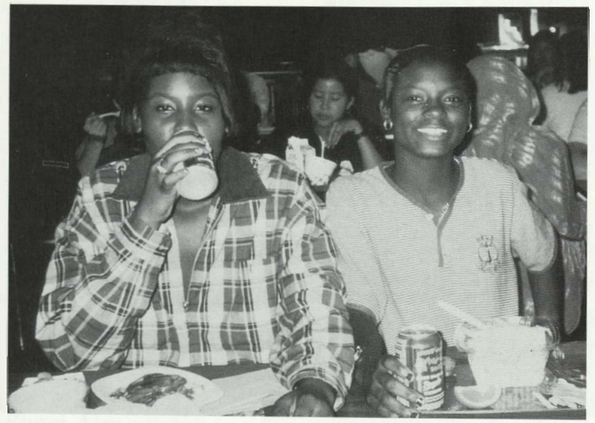
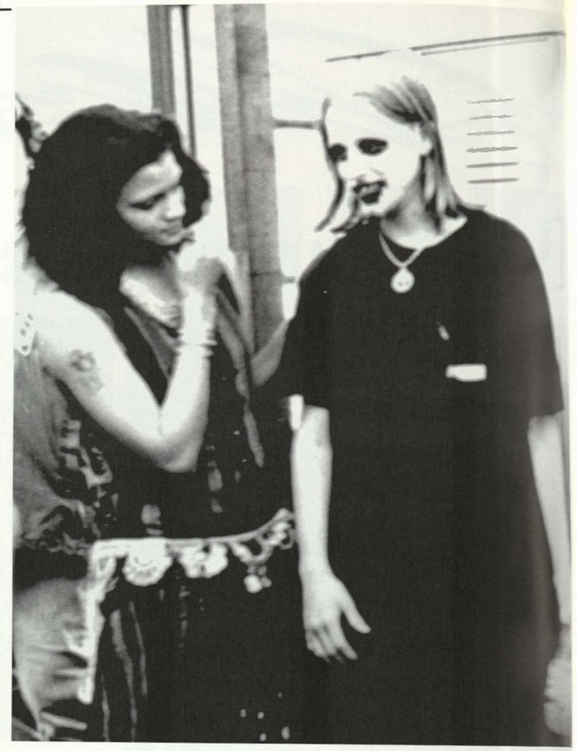
Amanda Payne and ~~Robert~~ Lewis showed their evil spirits on Halloween.



Angela Kelly and Demetria Anthony enjoy their time at lunch.



Natalie Dirks and Freddie Daniels are clowning in class instead of working on their assignments.

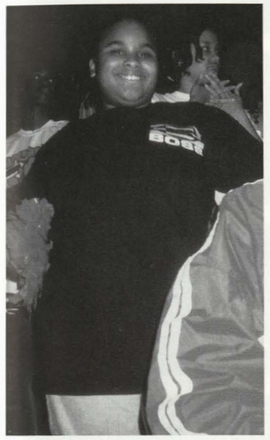
The New Bulldogs Freshmen

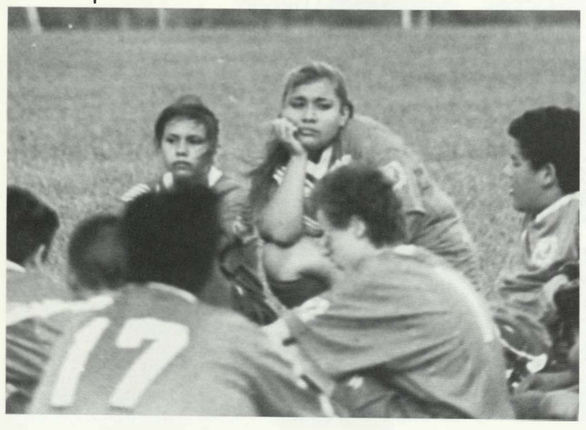
Latasha Jefferson could always be found at the Bulldog sporting events cheering for her favorite players.



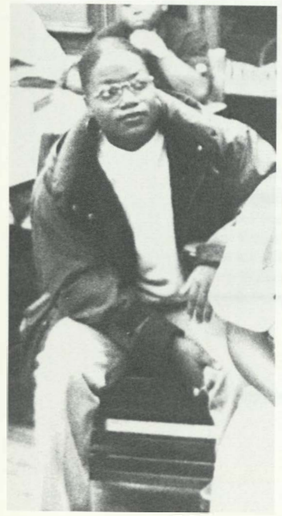
During the winter sports pep assembly the class of '01 was recognized and their sign was proudly held by Eva Taylor.

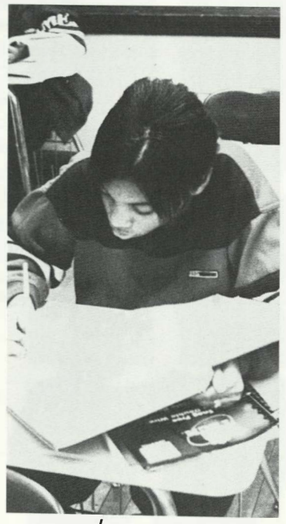
THEY MESSED UP!

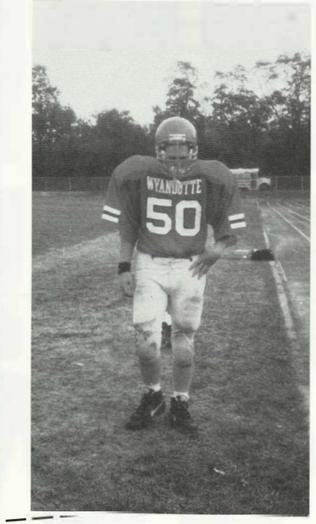
Soccer ~~was a sport~~ that struck the interest of many freshmen like Viviana Brisena and Julie Mora who played hard for the Bulldog team.



THIS IS NOT EVA







Freshmen Thomas White concentrates on the sidelines as he awaits his return to the field.

Te'nesha Mitchell studies hard on her assignment.

Freshman, Lana Harland, pays close attention to a lab presentation in her science class.

Freshmen Khaira Khalil and Keyonnica Hill joined Kay Cees to help make life as a Bulldog full of exciting times.

Class of 2001

Salina,

Even before you were born, it seemed that the odds might be stacked against you, however, you have shown everyone that you can beat the odds. You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent and respectable young woman. You still have a lot of growing to do, but if you continue on the path of truth and knowledge that you are searching for, your life will truly be enriched. We love you very much.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE ENTREPRENEURSHIP CLASS OF '98'

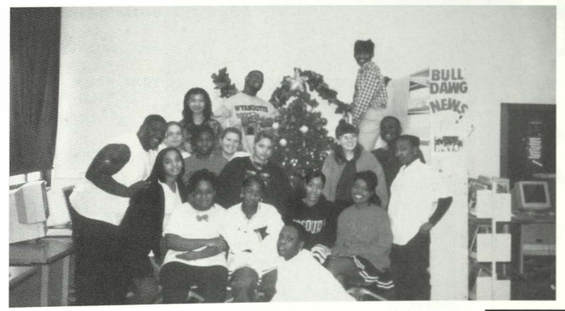
Congratulations to everyone in the Entrepreneurship Program of the class of 1998. You are a very special group of young men and women and I will always remember you. There were good and bad times, happy and sad times. I watched each of you grow and mature into fine individuals. I only wish the best for you and remember to follow your dreams. I will miss each of you very much. Love you, Ms. Nelson



Paula and Dena Turner

Just look at our girls,
How much they have grown.
Soon to set out upon lives
of their own.

How lucky we are to have daughters, so wise
Who can take on each day
with inquisitive eyes,

Seeking knowledge and insight
of all of lifes choices Expressing their views in their eloquent voices.

Now they're ready to journey down lifes mean streets
jumping into adventure with not one, but both feet.

So, wake up, world!
It's a brand new day,
And Paula and Dena are on their way!

We are overwhelmed with love and pride for you.
Live long and Prosper!

The year came and went as it does every year.
To, we Seniors,
of '98 , I wish us
the best.
We left a good
road for the rest.
For '99, time to step up.
Wish you best of luck.
Be proud to be a BULLDOG, don't lose your spirit.
When the other schools get rowdy,
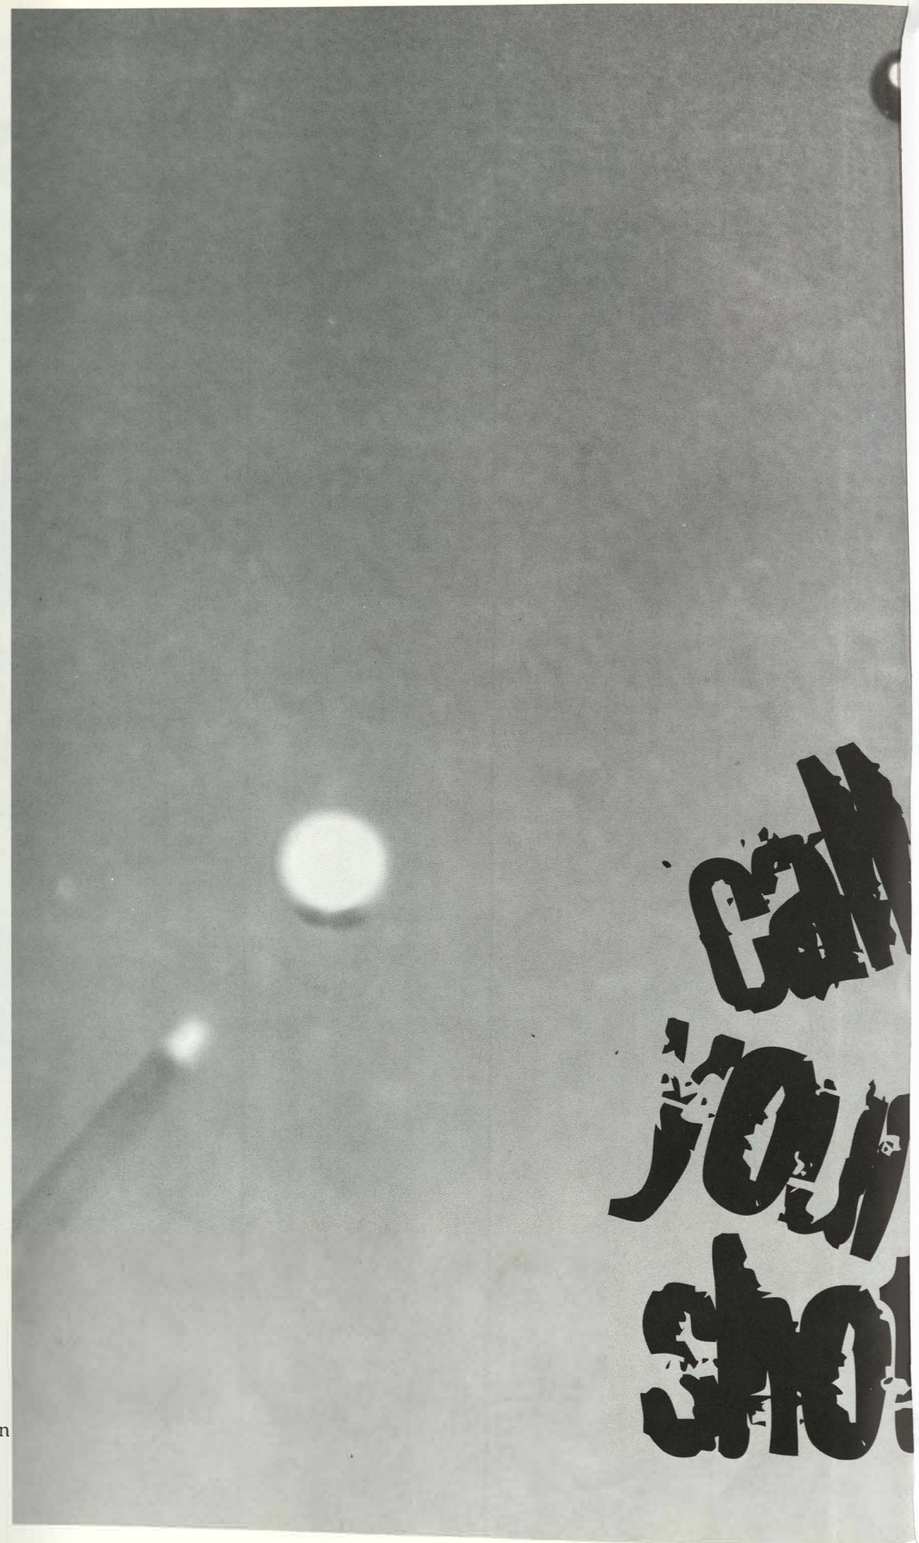
you gotta' get up
and show you
'bout it.


Katrina Winston
